

Leave the do not call list intact. I feel all the calls I received were an invasion of my personal privacy. I don't want calls, mail or personal visits trying to sell me anything. If I want something, I will call the provider or visit the provider and order it, or buy it.

Roger D. Bailey